Complaints and Appeals Procedure Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or his/her parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification he/she is following, Oxford Spires Academy encourages him/her to try to resolve this informally in the first instance. A concern or complaint should be made in person, by telephone or in writing to the head of centre Mrs Louise COWLEY

If a complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or his/her parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

- A formal complaint should be submitted in writing to Mrs Gosia Nowakowska Exams Manager by completing a complaints and appeal form.
- Forms are available from mnowakowska@oxfordspires.anthemtrust.uk
- Completed forms should be returned to mnowakowska@oxfordspires.anthemtrust.uk
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 2 calendar days

How a formal complaint is investigated

- The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (Mr Maurice DIXON) who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion
- The findings and conclusion will be provided to the complainant within 2 working weeks

Appeals Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

- Any appeal must be submitted in writing by again completing a complaints and appeals form
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 2 calendar days
- The appeal will be referred to David Hill Chair Of ACC or a special committee of the Governing body for consideration
- David Hill Chair Of ACC (or Committee) will inform the appellant of the final conclusion in due course.
