Ready

Smart Phone Free School

- Smartphones linked to rising anxiety, poor sleep & reduced focus
- Disruption to lessons, hidden use, and social conflict in school
- Students report difficulty concentrating and high dependency

What does it mean?

- Smartphones are prohibited on site (will be confiscated if seen or heard)
- Students may bring a basic phone (no internet or camera) for travel only

Smartphone

If a smartphone is seen or heard during the school day it:

- Will be confiscated
- Held securely at Reception
- Need to be collected only by a parent or carer
- R5 sanction issued. (-5 points)

Basic Phone

If a basic phone is seen or heard during the day it:

- Will be confiscated
- Held securely at Student Services
- Can be collected by student at the end of the day.

Refusal to hand over a smartphone will trigger escalation to a member of SLT, and non-compliance will lead to suspension.

Help us keep our school calm, focused, and phone-free.

Responsible

Restoratives

- 01 Talk calmly and openly about what happened
- 02 Give both the student and staff member a chance to share their perspectives
- 03 Reflect on what could have been done differently
- 04 And most importantly — find a way forward together

Reading

Summer Reading Challenge How many challenges can you complete?

Over the holiday, try and complete as many reading challenges as possible.

✂ Bonus: Complete a whole row or column and earn +2 House Points!

Scholars Task: Create your own activity to add to the challenge.

Read a news article (e.g. The Week or a newspaper).	Read a non-fiction book.	Read a biography.	Read a graphic novel.	Read a book that has been made into a film or TV show.
Read aloud to somebody or a pet.	Read a book about a different ethnicity to your own.	Read a library book.	Read a book that has won an award.	Read a book with your favourite colour on the front cover.
Read a poem.	Read a fiction book set in Oxfordshire.	Read a book that has been suggested by a friend/family.	Read a book based in a school.	Read a book set in the past.
Read outside.	Read a book set in a different country.	Read a book that was written before you were born.	Read at least 2 books in a series.	Read a book with over 100 pages.

To give you some help here are some suggestions to support your book choices.

If a series is what you would like to try, why not give one of these a go:

- Harry Potter
- A Series of Unfortunate Events
- The Hunger Games
- The Breakfast Club Adventures
- Stadium School
- Alex Rider

Historical books are very popular, if you want to try a book set in the past, why not go for:

- Over the line by Tom Palmer
- Rosie Raja by Sufiya Ahmed
- Viking Boy by Tony Bradman
- Windrush Child by Benjamin Zephaniah
- The Raven Master's Boy by Mary Hoffman

Why not try one of these authors with a range of experiences and cultures:

- Angie Thomas
- Alice Osman
- V. E. Schwab
- Jewell Parker Rhodes
- Khaled Hosseini

School before September, why not try:

- Wonder by R. J. Palacio
- One of Us is Lying by Karen M. McManus
- Matilda by Roald Dahl
- Vote for Effie by Laura Wood
- Unstoppable Dan Freedman

Lots of books have been made into films/TV shows, why not try:

- Wolf King by Curtis Jobling
- Divergent by Veronica Roth
- The Hobbit by J. R. R. Tolkien
- The Book Thief by Markus Zusak
- The Hate You Give by Angie Thomas
